IQVIA IMPACT PROGRAM

Danrey Mangila

"Danrey has shown a tremendous performance for this year, Initially he started as processing analysts, considering his consistent quality scores of more than 95% he was nominated to move as Quality checker. In his new role he showed to operations team the confidence in quality check work and holding utmost accuracy in his work. Parallely molded other newly graduated analysts in their production by providing feedback from time to time." His work ethics and discipline which gained trust from his leaders by moving him to a critical role in Global AM
